Tuck into the LRC's World Book Day Fictional Food Feast

HOW you create your dish is completely up to you. Your entry doesn't have to be made from real food - you can bake it OR fake it! If you choose not to bake it, your dish might be...

From 'Eat Me' cakes to Snozzcumpers, descriptions of food are a favourite feature of fiction for many of us. This competition is your chance to recreate a mouth-watering (or disgusting) dish/drink from a book...

modelled from plasticine, dough or papier maché...

knitted, sewn or appliquéd...

TO ENTER THE COMPETITION:

STEP 4:
receive achievement points for entering, or even a winner's prize!

created in any other way you choose!

STEP 1:
design and create your dish.

STEP 2:
write a short description of what your dish is, from which book it comes and what you have used to make it...

STEP 3:
email the description and a picture of your dish to Mrs Pearson by Friday 26th March.
